Gallant effort by Triathlon team

Terrific trio Holly, Russell and Tim.

Three brave members of the Roffe Swayne team recently took part in the annual Crondall Triathlon to help raise funds for the Help for Heroes charity.

Help for Heroes raises money to support members of the Armed Forces who have been wounded in the service of their country.

The energetic three are audit senior Holly Daly, who completed a 400m swim, trainee accountant Russell Chowney, who ran 5km and client service manager Tim Hughes, who cycled 20km. The team finished a respectable fourth and has so far raised more than £500 for the charity.

Canoeist Mallory races ahead with ramsac

Following its sponsorship of Guildford Heat Basketball Club, outsourced IT consultancy ramsac is continuing to support local sporting talent with canoeist Mallory Franklin. Sixteen-year-old Mallory, who is taking the sport of canoe slalom by storm, proudly carries the ramsac logo on her competition canoe.

Even at a young age Mallory has become a force to be reckoned with. Canoe slalom is a demanding sport where the aim is to quickly run a rapid river course, marked by "gates", without touching them.

Over the years Mallory, who began paddling at the age of five, has progressed through the UK rankings to become the youngest ever female to gain promotion to the Premier Division, at the age of 12.

ramsac is providing Mallory with financial sponsorship to help with the costs of travel to attend international championships. Currently standing at 10th in the world, Mallory's ultimate goal is to win a medal at the Rio Olympics in 2016.
