ENCOMPASS FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT'S PARTY IN AID OF SEBASTIAN'S ACTION TRUST

Davis Burton Sellek, chartered accountants, and lifestyle financial planners, Encompass Financial Management, hosted a drinks party recently to celebrate the opening of the new Encompass office in Charters Road, Sunningdale. The evening was in support of Sunninghill-based charity Sebastian's Action Trust and helped to raise £1,617 through a raffle and personal donations.

Directors Susan Drake and Mark Courage of Encompass, and Dawn O'Leary and Geoff Atkinson, partners at Davis Burton Sellek, invited local clients, businesses and residents to a champagne and canapé evening at "The Galleries" in Charters Road – to welcome Encompass to Sunningdale as well as helping raise money for the good cause.

Guests were treated to an evening of champagne and magic from seven-times national award winning magician David Penn. Penn, who has performed for Her Majesty the Queen, got the evening off to an amazing start and was a great talking point.

Mark Courage of Encompass said "We were delighted to see so many old and new friends enjoying themselves. The evening was a great success helping raise much needed funds for Sebastian's Action Trust – a local charity close to my heart."

Sebastian's Action Trust provides practical support and holidays to children with life-limiting illness. In June 2001, at the age of 7, Sebastian Gates was diagnosed with a rare cancer. Through his own experiences he sought to make life better for others facing an uncertain future. This was to be his legacy and this is what Sebastian's Action Trust works to achieve. Their goal is to raise £2 million, which will enable the trust to establish and maintain "Sebastian's House" for twenty years.
